LITTLE BREECHES.

A PIKE COUNTY VIEW OF SPECIAL PROVISIONS.

I don't go much on religion,
I never ain't had much show;
But I've got a middling tight grip, sir,
On the handful o' things that I know.
I don't pan out on the prophets
And freewill and that sort of thing—
But I believe in God and the angels,
Ever since one night last Spring.

I come into town with some turnips,
And my little Gabe came along—
No four-year-old in the country
Could beat him for pretty and strong.
Pearl and chipper and sassy,
Always ready to swear and to fight—
And I'd larn't him to chew tobacco,
Jest to keep his milk teeth white.

The snow came down like a blanket
As I passed by Taggart's store;
I went in for a jug of molasses
And left the team at the door.
They scared at something and started—
I heard one little squall
And hell-to-split o'er the prairie
Went team, Little Breeches and all.

Hell-to-split o'er the prairie!
I was almost froze with skeer;
But we roused up some torches,
And searched for him far and near.
At last we struck horses and wagon
Snowed under a soft white mound,
Up set, dead beat—but of little Gabe
No hide nor hair was found.

And here all hope soured on me,
Of my fellow critter's aid—
I jest flopped down on my marrow-bones
Crotch-deep in the snow, and prayed.

By this the torches was played out,
And me and Israel Parr
Went off for some wood to a sheepfold
That he said was somewhere thar.

We found it at last, and a little shed
Where they shut up the lambs at night;
We looked in and seen them huddled thar,
So warm and sleepy and white.
And thar sat Little Breeches, and chirped
As peart as ever you see,
"I want a chaw of terbacker,
And that's what's the matter of me."

How did he get thar? Angels,
He never could have walked in that storm.
They jest scooped down and toted him
To whar it was safe and warm.
And I think that saving a little child,
And bringing him to his own,
Is a derned sight better business
Than loafin' about The Throne.

THE MINER of the 28th, in speaking of improvements in Prescott, says:

Levi Bashford keeps carpenters and other tradesmen at work, repairing, beautifying and making comfortable his store and other buildings on the north side of the plaza. The "Old Capitol" is now one of the best-looking, most comfortable buildings in town, and the store in which Mr. Bashford has a large and costly stock of groceries, provisions, clothing, etc., is now undergoing repairs, which, when completed, will set it off right prettily. Mr. B. is one of the wealthiest merchants in Arizona, and has befriended many a poor man.

THE SIXTIETH TIME.—Judge Watts' trip to the States which he commences this morning, will make the sixtieth time he has crossed the plains since his residence in New Mexico. This time he goes to Washington to complete the arrangements for the First National Bank of Santa Fé. If all others interested in New Mexico would work as hard for its welfare as the Judge does, the Territory would soon move forward. We hope the new banking establishment will be a success, and we wish the Judge a safe and pleasant journey. —[Santa Fé Post.

ALEXANDER CALDWELL, of Leavenworth, was elected U. S. Senator by the Kansas legislature on the 25th of January.

Indian Affairs.

There was a large meeting of citizens, on Thursday evening, in the court-house, to hear the report of the committee appointed to take testimony on Indian depredations, in connection with one of the Legislature. A press of other matter in type in advance, prevents the appearance of the doings of the meeting this week, but we may say that the attendance was large and composed of prominent men. The committee had not been able to get many affidavits from other counties because of mail irregularities, but submitted those of about eighty well-informed citizens and army officers. They show the loss of hundreds of lives and hundreds of thousands of dollars in property during the last two years by hostile Indians, and every affiant either regards their hostility greater now than at any time since the organization of the Territory, or that the highways are extremely dangerous for small parties, &c.; also show that the resources of the Territory are ample to maintain a large and prosperous population. The meeting was addressed by Hons. S. R. DeLong, John H. Phillips, J. T. Alsop, H. H. Carter, T. J. Bidwell and E. N. Fish. Additional testimony will be accumulated, when all is to be published in book form, and the committee were authorized to raise $1,000 for that purpose, and yesterday before noon the citizens of Tucson had cashed up over $500. More next week.

EVERY man interested in Arizona, should read the financial exhibits we give this week to the exclusion of much else of interest, and not neglect the special Com's report which is commonly believed to have been originated for the sole purpose of defeating the confirmation of Cha's H. Lord as Auditor, and possibly John B. Allen as Treasurer, both of which gentlemen have filled their offices honestly and correctly, and discharged their duties as citizens with as much liberality as any other two in Arizona according to their means. A detailed history of this causelessly inimical report and its failure to effect the purpose intended, is crowded out.

THE Legislature, as per joint resolution, will adjourn next Monday at 10 a. m. The session has been at least an average useful one. All like bodies will defeat some meritorious bills and pass some that are of doubtful utility, but in this instance, we know of no harmful enactments. At this writing, all laws of special importance are passed, save the one making an apportionment for members of the next Legislative Assembly. A public and free school bill has been enacted, and this of itself we regard worth what the session cost.

INCREASE OF PAY.—The following may be of interest to persons ambitious for legislative profits if not honors:

A Washington dispatch of the 4th says Pomeroy reported a bill limiting the sessions of territorial legislatures to 40 days, fixing the pay, as follows: Members $6,000 per day during such session, and $6,000 for every 40 miles of travel. The president of the council and speaker of the house, $8,000 per day; one chief clerk $8,000 per day, and one assistant clerk, one enrolling clerk, one engrossing clerk, one sergeant-at-arms, and one door-keeper at $5,000 per day; passed.

We are under constant obligations to Hon. R. C. McCormick for documents and eastern papers. By the Washington Star of Jan. 24th, we learn that Thomas Cordis, of Prescott, was confirmed on the 23d, Collector of Internal Revenue for Arizona, vice Levi Bashford, resigned. Mr. Cordis is a capable, honest man, and we believe will make an efficient officer in all respects.
